

Dear friends,

Last week, the Luxton clan enjoyed a break in Southend, Kintyre. On Sunday, we visited a nearby tidal island called Davaar that hosts an infamous cave painting of the crucifixion.

In 1887 Archibald Mackinnon, A local Campbeltown art teacher, had a vision in which he was instructed to paint a depiction of the crucifixion. He secretly entered a cave and adorned one of its rocky walls with the image he dreamt. But his secrecy may not have been wise. When local fishermen came across the painting, they thought the artwork was a miracle, a sign from God. After the townsfolk discovered that the artist was MacKinnon, a mere mortal and not a divine being, they were so angry that they drove him out of town.<sup>1</sup>

The, life size, painting was really quite something and served as a reminder of the history that we become a part of as followers of Christ. The painting, which has been restored by art teachers from the local school, has been visited for over a hundred years by people who know Christ and people who are curious about Him. The writer of the Hebrews tells us that:

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

JESUS SAID

YOU ARE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

Perhaps, Mackinnon left us his painting as a reminder of the inexhaustible gift of hope that Christ offers to the world. As autumn approaches we will be considering what our next steps are as a community. Let us pray during this time with assurance that whatever necessary changes may take place we will always have a dependable and unshakeable cornerstone in Jesus Christ.

See, I am laying in Zion a stone,
a cornerstone chosen and precious;
and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame. (1 Peter 2:6)

World Mission: BMS

Ben Drabble, who heads up BMS Supporter Care Team, in his home office, says "it's easy to despair at the state of the world right now, which is why we wanted to remind you that God is still at work in powerful ways. One example, is that earlier this year we found out that up to 80 people are preparing to be baptized in Bangladesh, thanks to BMS World Mission partner, the Bangladesh Baptist Church, Sangha. That's 80 people who will be accepting the love of Jesus into their lives! These are our brothers and sisters in Christ, and by our support and prayers, we are part of their story. If that's not good news, we don't know what is!"

Generosity

We would like to thank all of you for your generosity in continuing to give to the church during this time. We appreciate that these are uncertain times and are grateful that many of us are still able to contribute to the mission of the Church.
